Washington State Star, New Coach of Coronado Kickers

CLYDE COOK DRILLS SQUAD

Transbay Warriors Out To Clean Up County Conference

With a Washington State star as coach, the Coronado high school footballers are out to make trouble for the county conference this season, and they are booting the old pigskin with a vengeance, for last year there was somewhat of a tangle as to whether Grossmont or Coronado won the championship.

County officials finally awarded it to Grossmont, and now the transbay eleven is out to even things up.

COOK IS MENTOR

Clyde Cook is the new coach at the green and white institution. Cook was a former Washington State luminary, and this being his first year across the bay, he is anxious to make good, although he will be somewhat handicapped by the absence of several veterans.

HOW THEY LINE UP

Coronado's present lineup for a team dopes out with Robt. McCreery, center; Percy Corrin and Jim McCreery tackles; "Fat" Smith and Ed Rankin, guards; Elton Dilley and Jim Lyons, ends; Geo. Lewis, quarter; Bill McCreery and Gardner Kendall, halves and Chas. Foster, a new man at full back.

Meza, Floyd, Alex Lyons, Harry Burt and Carl are others.

State College Eleven Defeats Coronado, 39-0

Although they fought hard and gamely the light Coronado High team was unable to stand up against the heavier line of the State college yesterday afternoon on the service field. Outweighted over 15 pounds to the man the transbay pigskinners scrapped and held the score to 39 to 0.

In the second half Coach Peterson of the college filtered in some second string men and the yardage decreased.

Capt. Jimmy Lyons, the little left end of the Coronado aggregation, was the outstanding star of the losers. Hester and Stahlfield broke through the line and nabbed the ball carrier for losses several times.

Price went into the game early and dropped two over the goal posts for two extra points. Maxwell, a substitute, showed up with a 25-yard run.

Next Tuesday the State college will meet the Fleet Air on the college field. Coaches Peterson and Durham were well pleased with the way their team played yesterday, every man showing up nicely.

Coronado Eleven Beats Naval Air

Manager Robert McCreery of the Coronado high school football team, announces that the next game scheduled for his squad is the contest at Escondido on Oct. 13 with the high eleven of that place. Yesterday afternoon Coronado took the Naval Air squad into camp by a 14 to 8 score in a hard fought game. The eleven across the bay coached by Clyde Cook, played excellent football to win over older and heavier opponents.

Coach Clyde Cook's Coronado high basketball teams made a clean sweep against the Ramona Union high quintet yesterday in three fast games played on the mountain city court.

The varsity game was won by the transbay squad, 17 to 12. At the end of the first half of play Ramona was leading, 9 to 4, but with a strong rush the Coronado squad rolled up their score in the second period to win. Ramona almost did the same thing in the 130-pound class game. With the score 15 to 5 against them at the end of the half, they staged a fast come-back, losing 19-21.

The Coronado girls' team made it three straight wins by defeating the Ramona players 21 to 9. The county championship now apparently rests between the transbay girls' team and Escondido.

COUNTY LEAGUE SQUADS IN TIE; SCORE IS 6-6

CORONADO football fans were treated to a spectacular game across the bay yesterday afternoon, the home town high school eleven holding the heavy Sweetwater Union team to a 6-6 tie. Coronado scored in the first three minutes of play and Sweetwater counted in the last two minutes.

Following the game Coach Clyde Cook of Coronado announced that he would protest the game, because of a ruling made by the officials regarding an alleged on-side kick. Sweetwater punted and the ball went out of bounds. It was given to the team which had kicked, although not touched by Coronado before going out of bounds, on Coronado's two-yard line. The kick was made on the fourth down. Cook's protest is based on rule 13, section 8.

Playing on a wet field, the light Coronado team was at a decided disadvantage, but made a fine showing against the strong Sweetwater squad. Mulvey starred for Sweetwater, while Kendall and Foster featured for Coronado. A large crowd viewed the game. Mulvey made the touchdown for Sweetwater and Kendall for Coronado. The Escondido team plays at Coronado next week and Sweetwater goes to Grossmont. The league standing follows:

	Won	Lost	Tied	Pct.
Coronado	1	0	2	1.000
Sweetwater	2	0	1	1.000
Grossmont	1	1	1	.500
Escondido	0	3	0	.000

CORONADO BASKET BALL TEAM BEAT GROSSMONT

In a game which furnished many thrills, the speedy Coronado quintet outclassed the Grossmont varsity on the grammar school court last Tuesday evening, by a score of 36-20. The game started out to be a close one, neither team being able to score, however, the home team finally hit their stride and played an exceptionally speedy ball to win. Smith, of the Coronado Five played one of the flashiest games ever witnessed on a basket ball court in Coronado. Dilley at center and Kendall at guard also showed up by their ready playing. McKenzie of the losers, played stellar ball for his team. Smith was high point man of the evening, making 8 field goals and Lewis was next with 4.

In a game between the 130 teams of the two schools Grossmont won, 35-20. Stewart of Grossmont and Lyons of Coronado showed up well.

Coronado Defeats Grossmont, 6 to 0;

By "SCOOP"

THE long standing feud between the Coronado and Grossmont high schools is ended, temporarily at least. It came to a conclusion late yesterday afternoon on the Coronado Country club polo grounds when Referee Simpson blew his whistle, denoting to hundreds of spectators that the football game between the two schools was over, with Coronado on the long end of the 6 to 0 score.

At the close of the County league last year, Coronado and Grossmont were tied. Coronado declined to play the tie off, and Grossmont claimed the championship.

This season there was only one slogan in each school. At Grossmont it was "Beat Coronado." At the transbay institution it was "Defeat Grossmont."

The first time these two teams met they battled to a 6 to 6 tie, and when the players took the field along about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon it was with a do or die spirit.

WHISTLE PREVENTS SCORE the ball on downs and punted out of danger.

Coronado kicked off to Grossmont's 20-yard line, but the "Farmers" ran the ball back 10 yards. A plunge through Coronado's line failed to net a material gain, and McKenzie punted. The game seasawed back and forth, with the ball in Coronado's territory for most of the half.

Just before the second period closed, Coronado, through a series of brilliant plays, carried the ball to Grossmont's 3-yard line. It was first down and three. Two line bucks took the ball to Grossmont's 1-foot line, but after the second play, the whistle blew, ending the half.

The third quarter was a repetition of the first, neither side being able to make any material gains.

Towards the end of the period, Coronado, through a couple of short passes, three or four end runs and a couple of trick plays, worked the ball to Grossmont's 1-yard line.

On the first play of the last quarter, Gardner Kendall plowed his way over the line for the only score of the game. Grossmont blocked the try for the extra point.

DANIEL MAKES GAINS

Behind, but not disheartened, the Grossmont team made a heroic finish. Time after time, R. Daniel tore through the Coronado line for gains. Sometimes it was only three yards, sometimes it was five and once it was 25 yards, but always it was a gain. As the result of Daniel's runs, Grossmont took the ball to Coronado's 10-yard line, but here the "Seasiders" held and took Grossmont once more took the ball deep into Coronado's territory, only to lose it, when a trick "end around" play failed by inches. Coronado once more kicked out of danger. Two attempts at forward passing by Grossmont failed, and McKenzie punted, just as the whistle blew. McKenzie, Stuart and R. Daniel stood out for Grossmont while Foster and Lewis were the stars of the winning team. The summary:

CORONADO HIGH GIRLS' QUINTET WINS, 17 TO 13

Defeating the Escondido Union High school girls' basketball team 17 to 13 yesterday, Miss Gertrude Kyle's Coronado High school girls' quintet practically clinched the county school championship in that division. The game was fast throughout and was hard-fought, as neither team had met with defeat until they had clashed on the transbay court, Escondido going down.

Miss Cage's Escondido girls won the county title last year and were making a strong bid for the title again this year, but their progress was halted yesterday. The county squads have only one more game to play in their league schedule and unless the unforeseen happens, the Coronado girls should win from Fallbrook, their last opponents for the title. The Fallbrook girls are now in the cellar position.

In the other two games played on the transbay court, the Coronado High quintets split even with the Escondido High fives, losing the varsity contest and taking the 130-pound game. Coach L. R. Icke's northern county varsity squad won, 27 to 16, from the transbay boys, but lost to Coach Clyde Cook's 130-pound team, 26 to 2.

Coronado's Girl Team Wins Title

DEFEATING the Fallbrook Union High school girls' basketball team, 50 to 5, yesterday on the transbay court, Miss Gertrude Kyle's Coronado High school girls' squad won the county school conference girls' court championship. The transbay squad has beaten all other girls' teams in the county league.

Coach Clyde Cook's Coronado High varsity and 130-pound teams also had a good day, both winning. The varsity game went to the transbay squad, 21 to 12. At the end of half time the score stood 9 to 7 in favor of Coronado.

Fallbrook's 130-pound quintet could not score during the first half of the game with the transbay lightweights, but did well in the second half, losing 32 to 7. Good teamwork was shown in all the games and though the Fallbrook squads lost, they put up a strong fight.

The county conference basketball season for the Coronado teams is now over but final standings in the league cannot be made until two postponed sets of games are played.

Dear Roundabouts: Noodles
Fagin recites this one on the vaudeville circuit. It should appeal to all of us:
While walking down a crowded
city street the other day,
I heard a little urchin to a comrade turn and say,
"Say, Jimmie, doncher know, I'd be happy as a clam,
If I only was the feller dat my mother thinks I am."
"She thinks I am a wonder, and knows her little lad
Would never mix with nuthin' that was ugly, mean, or bad.
I often sit and think how nice
'twould be,—gee whiz!
If a feller was the feller that his mother tinks he is."
So, folks, be yours a life of toil or undiluted joy,
You still can learn a lesson from the small unlettered boy—
Don't try to be an earthly saint,
with eyes fixed on a star,
Just try to be the fellow that your mother thinks you are.

CORONADO FIVE TO PLAY CHINO

Coach Clyde Cook's fast Coronado high school unlimited basketball team will play Chino high school tonight on the U. S. C. court in Los Angeles at 7 o'clock. Coronado was in a tie with Sweetwater and Ramona in the local County league and since it was impossible to stage a playoff in time to decide the winner it was decided to draw lots for the right to compete in the semi-finals in the north. This was done, Coronado winning. The game is in the C. I. F. southern section with the winners having a chance at the championship. Coach Cook will take the following players north: Smith and Dilley, forwards; Cobleith, center; W. McCreery and Lyons, guards; Newcombe and J. McCreery, substitutes.

Coronado's Juniors Win

Coach Clyde Cook, of the Coronado high school, reports that the junior class baseball team yesterday afternoon defeated the freshmen by the score of 13 to 0. Today the seniors and sophomores will hook up and the winner of this game will battle the juniors tomorrow afternoon at 3:15 for the class championship on the diamond.

Coronado has practically the same varsity ball team as a year ago and should put up a strong fight for the county league championship. Coach Clyde Cook also will have a good nine to enter in the junior high school league.

Practice for the varsity players will be started at Coronado on Monday, April 2, by Coach Cook.

Coronado Juniors Cinch Class Title

Coronado high school Juniors are the proud owners of the interclass baseball title today, which they won from the Sophomore nine yesterday in the final game of the interclass competition. The score was 10 to 2.

Coach Clyde Cook obtained a line on his varsity material during the games and is expected to be able to put a championship nine in the field by the time the County league games are scheduled to start.

Carl Klindt, local sportsman, presented the members of the Junior team with gold watch fobs.

The summary: R H E

JUNIORS WIN AT CORONADO

The Junior class baseball team yesterday annexed the interclass title at the Coronado high school by defeating the Sophomores, 10 to 2, in a game played on the transbay school diamond. Though the Seniors and Freshmen were scheduled to play for the cellar position in the series, the inability of the former class to put a nine in the field caused Coach Clyde Cook to call the final game.

Each team used two pitchers during the contest, Burt working the first three innings for the Juniors and Brose the first three for the Sophs. Goodbody and Bishop pitched the remainder of the seven inning contest for the respective classes. Both Goodbody and Brose struck out four men. Bishop whiffed three and Burt two.

This afternoon the Juniors will play a team of players made up from the other three class nines. The batting orders:

Juniors (10)—Burt, p., r.f.; Holmes, 1b.; Dilley, c.; Smith, 2b.; Newcombe, 1f.; Supple, 3b.; Rankin, s.s.; Nicol, c.f.; Goodbody, r.f., p.

Junior Class Wins Pennant

The Junior Class of the Coronado High School cinched the inter-class baseball championship by defeating the Sophomores last Thursday afternoon by the score of 10-2. The game was close until the 4th inning with the score 2-2, when Brose of the Sophomores blew up and allowed 5 runs. Bishop who replaced Brose held the Junior sluggers to 3 runs for the rest of the game. Goodbody and Burt pitched great ball for the Juniors striking out 8 men and allowing 5 hits.

Earlier in the week the Sophomores defeated the Seniors in a close game 14-10. The big feature of this game was Elizabeth Floyd playing third for the Seniors and getting 2 hits and making an assist.

The Junior line-up is as follows:

Dilley, catcher; Goodbody, pitcher; Holmes, 1st base; Smith, 2nd base; Supple, 3rd base; Rankin, short stop; Newcombe, left field; Nicol, centre field; Burt, right field (replaced Goodbody as pitcher).

Coronado Five Wins

Coach Clyde Cook's Coronado High school basketball team defeated the San Diego Savings bank squad, 42 to 13, in a practice game played on the Coronado court last night.

Though playing their first tilt, the transbay squad showed good team work and promise to make a good showing in the County loop which opens in January. The interval will give additional time for practice and the betterment of team play.

Dilley, forward, was the high point man of the night scoring seven goals from the floor. Smith, also of Coronado, ranked a close second with five field goals. Cobleigh, center, and Burt, guard, scored four and three goals respectively for Coronado.

Tubbs scored the majority of the points for the Bankers. The line-ups:

CORONADO HI DEFEATS STATE

Speed was the keynote of the game in which Coach Clyde Cook's Coronado High quintet defeated the State college subs 27 to 17 on the Y. M. C. A. court last night. Coronado had the edge on the Staters with their fast passing combination, but both teams played a snappy brand of ball throughout the game.

Smith, Coronado forward, shot seven baskets making him high point man, while Cobleigh, Coronado center, featured in every play. Wulff at center, was a consistent worker for the State subs. Coach C. E. Peterson's varsity basketballers are having two weeks' practice before their next conference game which will be played with Santa Ana junior college here Jan. 26. There are seven strong teams in the junior college basketball conference this year, and the Staters will have to get the best of a lot of competition on their way to the league championship.

HIGH SECONDS BEAT CORONADO

Ten innings of torrid baseball were played at Coronado yesterday, when the San Diego high school second team won from the transbay nine, 9 to 5. Coach Claude Hippler's local boys were leading Coach Clyde Cook's nine a gay life until the seventh inning, having a 5 to 0 lead over their opponents. All looked sweet for the Hilltop bat artists until this chapter, which proved very lucky for the Coronadans, for four runs were counted by Cook's players. Another run in the eighth inning for the Coronadans and a scoreless ninth inning ran the game over to the tenth column.

However, the local boys tucked away the contest for sure in the tenth frame, garnering four runs in that inning. Arnett started off the rally for the Hilltoppers by going to first via the four-ball route. He was advanced to second on Dorval's sacrifice hit and scored on Farr's long two-bagger. Behr singled, advancing Farr. Springer smaked out a pretty double and scored Farr and Behr. Springer went to third on the throw-in and scored on Morrison's neat sacrifice bunt.

One of the features of the game was the exceptional pitching of one Martin, a new man on the San Diego team. Although hit badly in the seventh frame, Martin chalked up 16 strikeouts to his credit, and walked five. In the ninth and tenth innings he struck out the first three opposing batters. In four innings of the fame he fanned the complete side and in two innings of the battle struck out two men. Harper, on the slab for the Coronado nine, fanned four and passed three. The lineups:

Coronado—Billings, c.; Harper, p; Smith, 1b.; Pope, 2b.; Newcomb, 3b.; Rose, s.s.; R. Goodbody, 1.f.; Bishop, c. f.; D. Goodbody, r.f.

Girl Lands Berth On Baseball Club At Coronado High

For the first time a girl has landed a regular berth on a men's baseball team. Miss Elizabeth Floyd, senior at the Coronado high school, did just that thing. It all happened yesterday when the Seniors and Sophomores met on the transbay diamond in the interclass games. The Seniors lost, 10 to 14, but it was not Miss Floyd's fault. In four times at bat she made two hits. Also playing at third base, she made one assist.

Yesterday's game was the second of the class series, the Juniors winning the first game against the Freshmen. This afternoon the Senior and Freshmen nines will meet to play off for the cellar position. The final game of the series between the Sophomores and Juniors will be played Friday afternoon. Coach Clyde Cook of the transbay school announces. The lineups for yesterday's game:

GENERAL BRADMAN, PARTY CATCH 178 BASS AT BARRETT

If matters continue as they have during the last two weeks, the fish in Lake Barrett will be diving for the bottom every time Brig. Gen. F. L. Bradman, commanding officer of the marine corps base, and his party of anglers come into sight.

General Bradman; Mike Morrow, San Diego high school coach; Charlie Smith, of the San Diego State college coaching staff; Lt. Comdr. J. J. Balentine, and Junior Todd, of the Stanley Andrews Sports Goods store, have made four excursions to the lake and have brought home ample supplies of bass on each occasion.

During those four trips, the party has landed a total of 178 bass. They report that fishing is better at Barrett this year than any time during recent seasons, catches there overshadowing any at other reservoirs in the county.

Coronado Defeats Melville Team, 7-6; Passes Net Scores

By TED STEINMANN

Coronado high school's team battled its way to a 7 to 6 victory over the U. S. S. Melville yesterday on the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. field in the first football game of the season.

Both touchdowns were made in the last quarter. Coach Clyde Cook's boys scoring the extra point on a place kick, while the Melville try from placement went wide.

The game was the first played by either team. Fumbles were numerous and play was often slow. The men showed plenty of fight, however, the lighter high school men driving in on every play.

Following an exchange of punts and a few attempts at line smashing after the opening of the period, Melville took the ball down the field on passes, Barrett to Fitz, and from the five-yard line on the fourth down, Barrett smashed through the line for a touchdown. His attempted kick from placement failed. Score: Melville, 6; Coronado, 0.

PASS PUTS IT OVER

Following the kick-off the teams exchanged punts, Coronado getting the ball on the 40-yard line. An end run by W. McCreery, the Coronado flash, and a few line drives and the ball was on the 20-yard line.

Here a pass was flashed to Barrett Coronado right end, and he ran over the line to tie the score at all. Coronado's try for the extra point from placement just cleared the center of the bar. Score: Coronado, 7; Melville, 6.

Melville received on the net kick-off, but could not gain consistently and was forced to punt. Coronado returned the ball to the 20-yard line. Two line plays failed to gain much ground and on the third a fumble occurred. Coronado recovered the ball and the game ended there.

Several chances to score were lost by the Melville during early part of the game when fumbles stopped the forward march of the team. Once Coronado also halted on the three-yard line when the Melville line stiffened and threw back Coronado at every play.

PLAYERS NERVOUS

But one forward pass, a slight toss over the line of scrimmage. Coronado, was completed in the first quarter. Nervousness apparently caused several well placed balls to be dropped. Several plays completed later.

W. McCreery, half back, Coach Cook's eleven, gained a major part of the ground through the field for the transbay team, open field running and daaround the end were flashy. Barrett, captain of the Melville eleven, coached by Lieut. Danielson, was Chiefs Kestner and Hoffman, was the big ground gainer for the defense. His line smashing strategy eleven. His line smashing was good for many yards. In the Melville line, Bushnee stood out, with Fitz at end, showing well on the receiving end of several passes and in stopping end runs. Coronado tackle, though small in comparison with his opponents, made a good showing. Both teams put up a good fight and played an excellent brand of football, considering it was their first game.

Coronado Wins Ball Game Sunday

Led by the nice pitching by Ray Guchnard and the heavy hitting of Arnold, S. S., Coronado won the game as they pleased Sunday. The visiting team was no match for Coronado. Charley Smith, C., was easily the out-standing player, catching a fine game as well as getting 3 for 5. This fellow is a Coronado boy and he doesn't look bad on any man's ball-club. Frenchy Chournard Captain and 1B, also played a neat game, always keeping his teammates on their toes and playing the best game possible.

Next Sunday will furnish a strong competition for the Coronado ball club in the Colored Boys from San Diego. Baseball will be discontinued in Coronado by the present management if the gate receipts do not show much improvement in the next two Sundays.

TO A LITTLE BOY

The little things you do and say
Are gone with every passing day—
Or so it seems, my darling, yet
I know I never shall forget.

Somewhere within my secret heart,
Under the hopes that break apart,
Under the shadow of the years,
Under my laughter and my tears—

Somewhere the little lonely things
That touch my life with fragile wings—

A question in your eyes—a cry—
And your first smile, and your first sigh—

Somewhere I know all these remain
Heavy with sweetness and with pain,
And though you change—a small boy can—

Quite suddenly into a man.

Then never doubt I shall recall
When you were really very small
And brought me stones and sticks to keep,

And run to laugh with me, or weep.

So if within the man I see

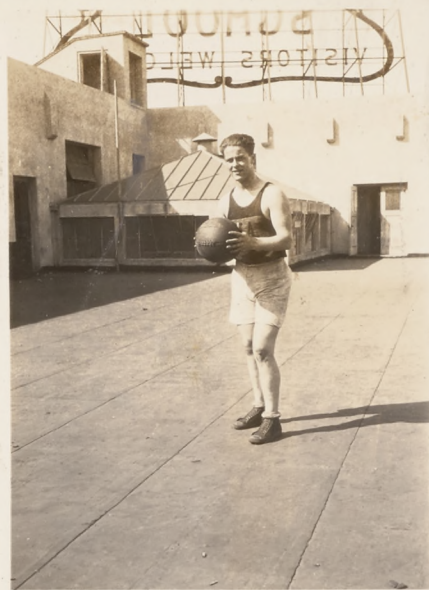

A little boy—ah, bear with me;

For though it may be quite amiss,

A mother's heart is made like this!

GRIZZLIES TAKE SECOND GAME FROM STATERS

Fighting gamely but unable to get hits when they meant runs, Coach Johnny Hancock's San Diego State college baseball team dropped the second game of the series with the University of California, Southern Branch, nine yesterday on the college field, 10 to 3. The Grizzlies therefore made a clean sweep of the first intercollegiate baseball competition with the Aztecs, winning the opening game Saturday, 7 to 5.

Smith, State second sacker, accounted for State's three runs, with a home run in the first inning with Chipman and Doud on base.

Thereafter State was held scoreless while the visitors got to Vogt and Bennett in the second, third, fifth, seventh and eighth innings for runs. Score:

Cameron Lets Poets Down With Two Hits; Elect Smith Captain

WHITTIER, May 25 (Special).—A sacrifice fly in the eleventh inning gave the Whittier college nine a 4 to 3 decision over the San Diego State college team in a nip and tuck baseball game here this afternoon which closed the Southern California conference athletic season for both institutions.

Capt. Milton "Red" Cameron of the Aztecs went the whole route on the mound and set the Poets down with two hits, but he lost the game through the errors of his team mates.

The first three innings were scoreless, Whittier breaking the ice in the fourth when Reitz slammed a home run, one of the two hits allowed by Cameron.

The Aztecs evened the count in the fifth and went into a lead with a two-run rally in the seventh. Johnny Gregory was safe on an error, stole second and came home on Cameron's single. Cameron kept on for second base and made a complete circuit when Lewis, Whittier catcher, threw the ball away in an attempt to nail Cameron at the keystone bag.

Whittier scored the tying run in the last of the ninth on Menefee's error, a stolen base and a sacrifice fly. The Poets went on to win out in the 11th, scoring again on a sacrifice fly.

After the contest Charlie "Fat" Smith was chosen by his team mates to captain the 1930 State college nine. Smith has caught every game this year and by his heads-up play has bolstered the entire infield.

Cameron's pitching overshadowed everything else done by Coach Barkham Garner's players, but Terry Geddis and Capt.-elect Smith also played good ball. Geddis hit a double and covered center field in faultless style.

The score:

San Diego 3 9 4

Whittier 4 2 4

AZTECS BATTLE OXY FOR LEAD HERE TOMORROW

One of the four undefeated Southern California conference basketball teams will drop in the standings tomorrow night when Occidental and San Diego State college varsity teams clash in their annual game at the high school gym at 8 o'clock.

Redlands, winner of the crown last year, still is unbeaten in four starts, but draws a bye this week, while the other team in the four-way tie for first place, Whittier, is slated to play La Verne tonight and tomorrow night. The Poets will be favored to defeat the Leopards and remain in the deadlock, so the San Diego-Oxy tussle draws the greater part of the interest in this week's conference play.

Morris Gross, Aztec mentor, believes that his team is capable of handing the Tigers the first loss ever suffered at the hands of a State college cage quintet, but is taking no chances of having his hopes smashed. Strenuous scrimmages, climaxed by a practice game last night with the San Diego Athletic club, have placed the Staters in good trim, although there still remain a few rough spots to be smoothed out. Gross will work on those weaknesses today when he calls his squad together for a final workout at 4 o'clock in the Hilltop gym.

The Aztecs had difficulty getting started against the Sandacs but toward the end of the scrimmage were out-scoring their club rivals. Ralph Smith, reserve forward, looked particularly good and he may replace one of the present first stringers, Ossie Ritland or Terry Miles. Bob Tucker will hold down the center berth, while Merrill Douglas and Jack Holheisal have a slight edge over the other guards. Glenn Warren and Don Cole, however, are giving the regular guards a fast chase for the chance to start the Oxy game.

Occidental will be playing its first game without the services of "Tricky Dick" Glover, sensational forward, who has been graduated, after being able to participate in the first four tilts in which the Tigers engaged. Don Main, midjet sophomore star, will start in his place, pairing up with Capt. Dimpler. Noble will start at center, with Gostovich and Elliott probably getting the call as guards.

In an opener encounter to the conference classic, Charlie Smith's State college freshman team will engage Brawley Junior college, the tilt being billed to start at 6:45 o'clock. The Papposes were hard hit by the mid-year examinations, so the squad is somewhat of an unknown quantity as yet.

Every ball team he played with in his early days had plenty of shortcuts. It was a case of catching—or else.

He had to catch because no one else would at Boston university, where after his college days were over he played semi-pro ball at Saratoga, N. Y.

The team broke up and one of the players had a chance to play for Jiggs Donohue at Dover, Del. He wanted to take Mickey along.

"You've got to be a catcher, though," he told Mickey. "They have everything else."

"But I don't want to catch," Mickey complained.

"Well, its that or nothing," So Mickey arrived at Dover as a catcher and he missed so many foul flies that the board of directors called a special meeting and ordered Jiggs to fire him.

AZTECS BATTLE
OXY TONIGHT

Basketball interest in the Southern California conference will focus on the high school gym here tonight when the San Diego State college and Occidental varsity quintets meet in a circuit engagement at 8 o'clock.

Oxy, always strong in every sport recognized by the conference, will for the first time in history face a serious possibility of carting off the short end of the score. State never has chalked up a cage victory over the Tigers, but Morris Gross' Aztec five looms this season as the strongest ever put out at the San Diego institution.

Coach Eddie Kienholz's Tigers have copped three loop games to date, defeating Caltech on two occasions by safe margins and then trouncing Pomona in their last start. Scores in those tussles indicate that Occidental will hold just a slight edge over the Staters, but Gross' charges will be strengthened by the return of one of its outstanding performers, while Oxy loses one of its shining lights.

Bob Tucker, former ineligible, now has a clean slate again, since the opening of the new semester, and will be at center for the Aztecs tonight. Occidental, however, will be without the services of "Tricky Dick" Glover, high-scoring forward, who was graduated last week. Don Main, midget sophomore star, will take over his position. Tucker, with an ideal build for a pivot man, looms as one of the best shots in the league and probably will be a tough one for the Tigers to keep tab on.

State has had only one conference game, having won easily from Caltech almost a month ago, and since then Gross has been keeping the Red Devils busy with practice games. Most of the strong San Diego teams have met defeat at the hands of the Staters, who have shown rapid improvement, so the Tigers may be in line for their first defeat of the year.

State will have another reason for winning, besides that of being able to defeat Oxy for the first time in history. Tonight's game will be the first athletic engagement for the Aztecs since the opening of the new college east of the city and Gross is anxious to give the recently completed enterprise a successful start in sports.

A Woman
There Was

BY THEDA BARA

A Woman's Reply to Rudyard Kipling's Famous Poem
"The Vampire"

A woman there was, and her love she gave
(Even as you and I!)
To gain the happiness women crave
(Which doesn't exist, this side the grave),
But she played the part of a groveling slave
(Even as you and I!)

Oh, the hearts that ache, and the hearts that break!
But how can a girl command
The passion whose power she does not know
(A passion for one who never can know)
And never can understand?

A woman there was, and her youth she spent
(Even as you and I!)
Loving and trusting and well content
(She fancied her happiness Heaven-sent),
Till she learned, too late, what loving meant
(Even as you and I!)

Oh, the truths we learn of the souls that yearn
When a woman's years are spanned,
And all for a man who could not know
(For, being a man, he never could know)
And could not understand.

The woman lost in her desperate game
(Even as you and I!)
The man was left with his honored name
(The moth is scorched in the candle's flame),
And the woman it is who reaps the blame
(Even as you and I!)

It isn't the tears nor the bitter years
That sting like a white-hot brand.
It is knowing the man will never know why
(For, being a man, he can never know why)
And never can understand!

State College to Have Heavier Football Team

First String Eleven To Average About 185; Backfield Speedy One

By KENWOOD BOJENS

If Walter Herreid, San Diego State college varsity football coach, were to put on the field today what appears to be his first-string lineup, the players, from end to end, would average 185 and a fraction pounds to the man, while the backs would tip the beam in the neighborhood of 167 pounds.

The combined poundage of backs and linemen would give the Aztecs a team average of approximately 178 pounds, enough beef to please any mentor. As was the case last year, the Staters probably will depend on a strong line and a speedy backfield, with most of the ball packers of the smaller and shifter type.

Here is the way State would line up if they were to go into action today:

FIRST TEAM NOT DEFINITE

As yet Herreid really has no definite first string, but the group named have had a little the best of it in the first few workouts. A number of changes are possible, however, especially in the backfield, where four veterans—Eldon Dilley, Pete Walker, Red Clarke and Harold Grant—are having a tough time of it battling the newcomers. Yamamoto has shown as much progress as any of the first-year men, although Mike Dillon, who saw some action last season, is coming along in good shape and looks to be one of Herreid's best bets for the quarterback berth.

Dillon not only is a good ball packer, but boasts exceptional ability—as a blocker. Goldbeck and Alex Lopez are other quarterback candidates, while Grant and Foster are Dilley's opponents in the race for the right halfback job. Harry Jones, former San Diego high school track star and a St. Augustine School for Boys football luminary, also is considered a threat for Clarke's job at the left half post.

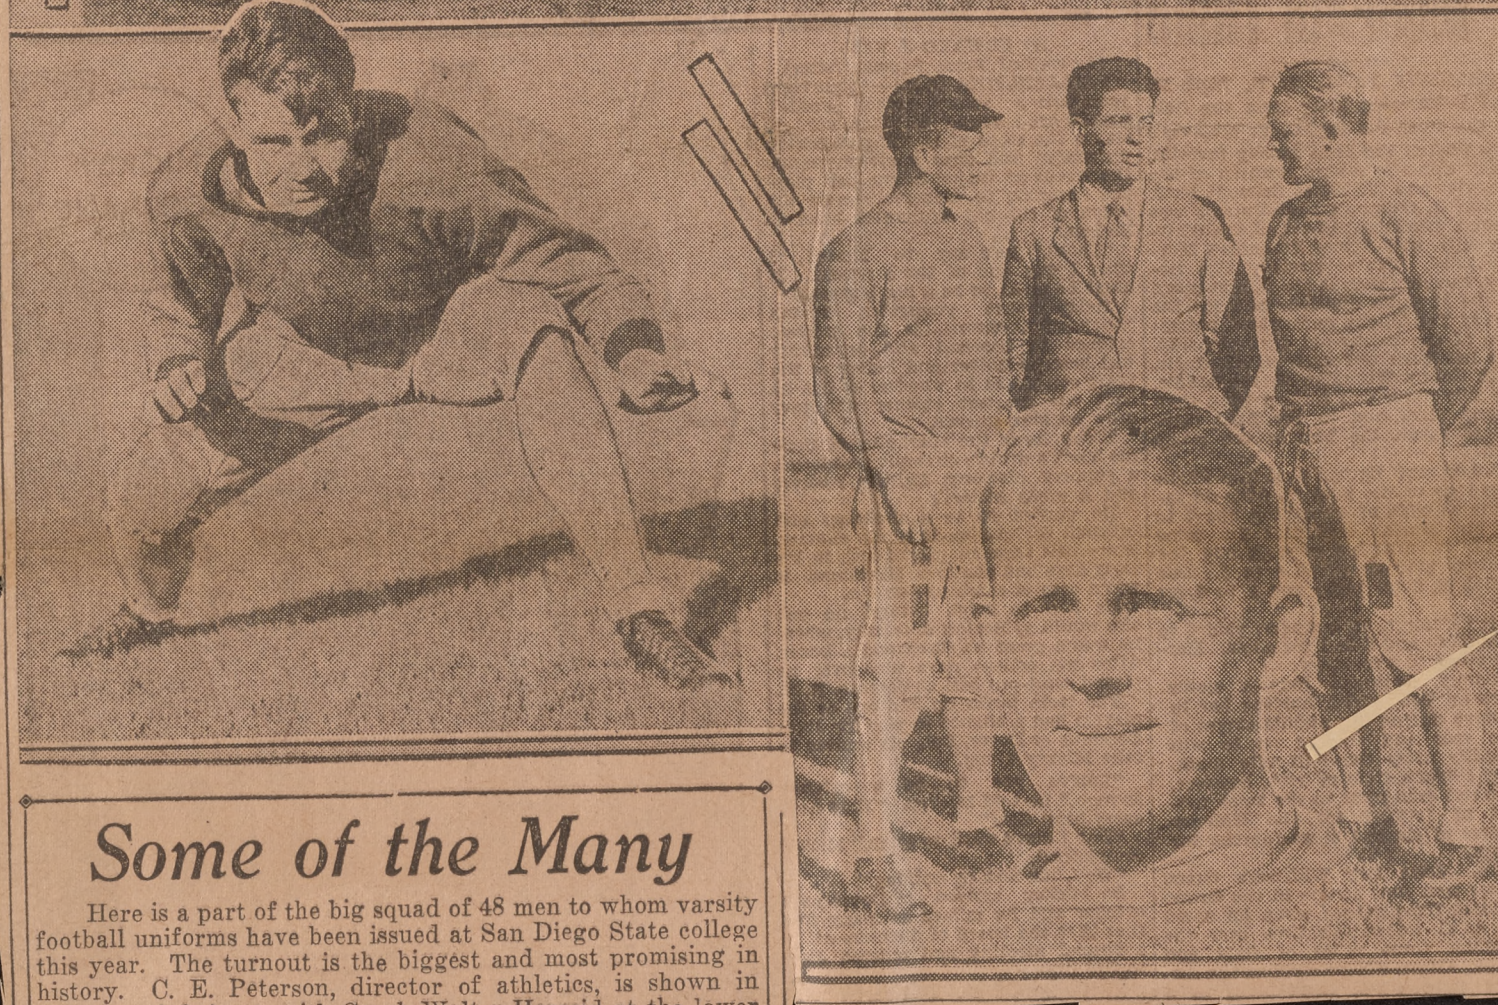

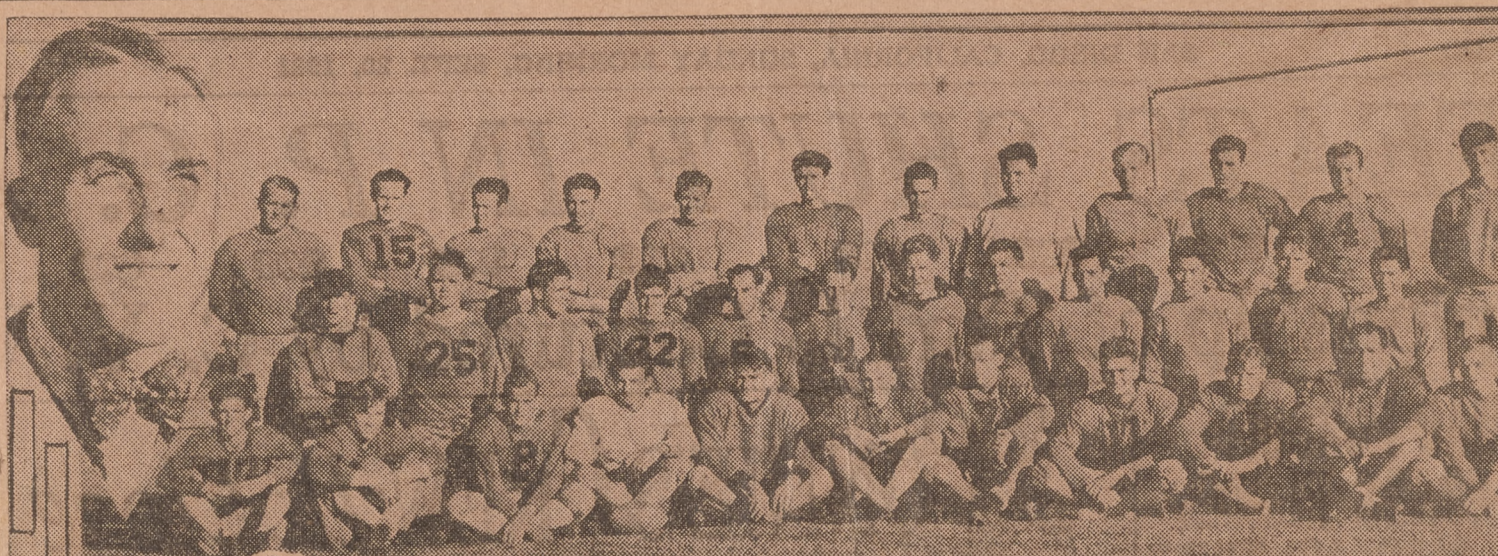

Ed Thompson, who can do just about anything with a pigskin—run, pass or kick—is being tutored for the fullback position now held down by Walker. At present he is out with an infected foot, but Herreid is expecting lots from him when he is ready to don a uniform again.

The Aztec mentor also is working with another fullback, Bob Leonard, State's big weight man, who tosses the shot and discus with equal dexterity. Leonard, weighing 215 pounds, has never played football, but he can pass with either hand and Herreid figures that with a little experience he should be an aid to the squad.

Here is the way the second string lines up at present: Head, 135 pounds, and Gregovich, 152, ends; Schneider, 175, and Driscoll, 170, tackles; Cornell, 190, and Jessop, 156, guards; Brown, 180, center; Dillon, 160, quarterback; Jones, 155, and Grant, 156, halfbacks; Bailey, 170, fullback.

That eleven, averaged up, gives State 167 pounds to the man on the line and 160 in the backfield, for a team average weight of 165. The total poundage averages more than 13 pounds less to the man than the first string, so it gives Herreid two distinctly different types of teams. The lightweights are naturally speedier than the heavier first string, but still have enough avoidupolis to hold their own against almost any of the Southern conference outfits.

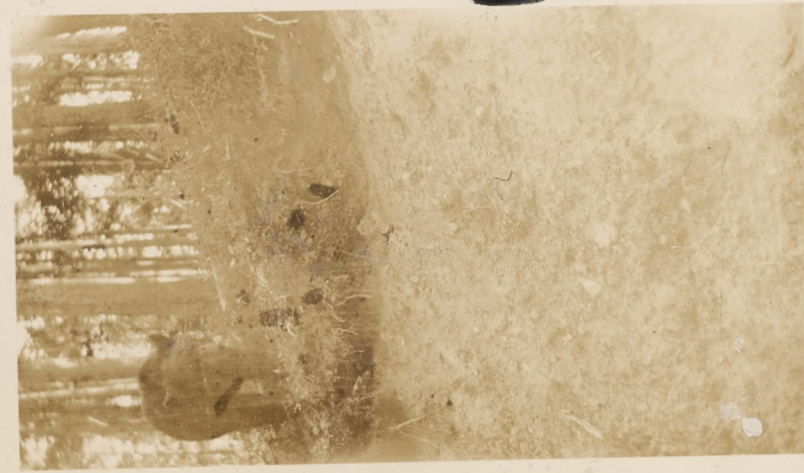

The remainder of the squad, other than the first two groups named, will average better weights than the second team, indicating that State should not lack for beef this year.

Some of the Many

Here is a part of the big squad of 48 men to whom varsity football uniforms have been issued at San Diego State college this year. The turnout is the biggest and most promising in history. C. E. Peterson, director of athletics, is shown in the upper left inset, with Coach Walter Herreid at the lower right. Art Kelly, giant tackle and letterman, is "shot" on the left ready for whatever comes his way, while the group in the right center compose the coaching staff. The three mentors are, left to right, Charles "Fat" Smith, Dave Barnes and Herreid.

CORONADO CAST WILL GIVE PLAY

High School Students to Appear in Drama, 'Kindling,' Next Friday Night.

The Coronado Players under the coaching of Mrs. J. Leslie Cutler, will present "Kindling" Friday evening at the Coronado high school. The play will start at 8 o'clock and one of the best performances of the year is expected.

The drama, which is in three acts, is one of the few genuinely significant American plays. Although it is a serious drama and can be successfully interpreted only by competent actors, it is full of quaint and humorous situations. "Kindling" shows the struggle of a young couple in the poor district of New York to escape their squalid surroundings and go west, for the sake of their child. It is a fine and touching play, with a heart throb in every line of its crisp speeches, its tense situations and strong climaxes.

In the Coronado production "Maggie," the leading role, will be played by Elizabeth Green, a young Coronado woman of amazing talent and beauty. Edward Stahlfield will appear opposite Miss Green. His fine physique and deep voice will lend conviction to this great part. The ingenue role, "Alice," will be in the capable hands of Marjorie Young. Miss Young has had much amateur experience and is ideally cast. Russell Stowell will play the juvenile lead opposite Miss Young.

Percival Adams, as might be expected, proves himself a competent dramatic interpreter. In the role of "Steve the Heavy," he is expected to do great work.

Mrs. Parks as the jolly "Bates," Charles Smith, astute detective, assisted by the plainclothesman, Frank Reitzel; Helen Freeman, as the grand dame and Daryl Collins as her henchman, will add to the enjoyment of the performance.

The admission will be 50 cents and west doors will be open at 7:30. Tickets can be obtained from the students of the school or at the door on the evening of the presentation.

'LITTLE WOMEN' PRESENTED BY STUDENTS

The delightful four-act comedy "Little Women" was presented Saturday evening, Jan. 20, at the high school theatre, Coronado, which seats over 700, to a full house. The cast was as follows:

Meg, Agnes Ellinger; Joe, Elizabeth Floyd; Beth, Dorothy Bandei; Amy, Inez Cridge; Mrs. Marsh, Martha Farnum; Mr. Marsh, George Rogers; Aunt Marsh, Agnes Sherrier; Prof. Bhaer, Paul Chamberlain; John Brooke, Charles Smith; Mr. Laurence, Maurice Goodbody; Laurie, Charles Foster; Hannah, Viola Tatum.

This charming play, old but ever welcome, took on new life as its characters were interpreted by these winsome maids and manly youths. Many hearts grown old felt young once more as they looked upon these olden scenes and gowns of bygone days. The scenery was beautiful and the settings most artistic, and well-known critics were heard to remark that it was the best play they had seen presented by the school.

Agnes Ellinger as Meg was as charming yet dignified as any maiden of anti-fopper days. Joe was wonderfully portrayed by the versatile favorite of Coronado high, Elizabeth Floyd. Martha Farnum won the admiration of all as the quaint and lovable Mrs. Marsh. George Rogers, despite his youth, was a most dignified father representing Mr. Marsh. Inez Cridge in the butterfly role of Amy, flitted here and there to the delight of all. Laurie, the carefree youth of old, lost none of his charm in his impersonation by Charles Foster. It was only natural that Dorothy Bandell should represent the sweet frail flower of the family. Beth Maurice Goodbody as Mr. Laurence was a veritable "Gentleman of the Old School." Prof. Bhaer was creditably portrayed by Paul Chamberlain, and Agnes Sherrier as Aunt Marsh received much favorable comment. Charles Smith, as John Brooke was warmly applauded. Viola Tatum as Hannah, was a scream. Considering the fact that aside from the usual school work, most of the players are members of the basketball team as well, they deserve much praise and the home folks, are not alone in their appreciation, as requests have been received from San Diego and La Jolla to present the play at those places.

Unqualified credit is due to Clara Belle Cutler for her untiring efforts, as well as her ability to mold this raw material into the acceptable cast they proved to be.

The efforts of the cast are to be rewarded by a banquet at the Churchill, Saturday, Jan. 27, followed by a theatre party at the Broadway Strand.

Miss Elizabeth Green

Talented young Coronado woman, who will appear as "Maggie," the leading character in "Kindling," to be produced by the Coronado Players. The play will be produced under the direction of Mrs. J. Leslie Cutler in the new Coronado High School theatre on Friday evening, May 4, at 8 o'clock.

Players Have Dinner, Dance In Coronado

One of the attractive dinner parties at Hotel del Coronado Saturday evening was that given by the members of the cast of "Kindling," the comedy drama which was presented with so great success the preceding evening at the high school theatre. Following dinner the party enjoyed a dance in the ballroom of the hotel.

Among those in attendance were the following members of the cast and their friends: Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Cutler, Mrs. Parks, Miss Marjorie Young, Miss Elizabeth Greene, Miss Helen Freeman, Miss Margaret Lewis, Miss Colleen Pyke, Miss Elizabeth Floyd, Percival Adams, Edward Stahlfield, Russell Stowell, Daryl Collins, Frank Reitzel and Charles Smith.

LA JOLLA GRIDDERS BOW TO OCEANSIDE

Although fighting hard during the entire game, the smaller and less experienced La Jolla high school football team went down before the Oceanside Pirates, 19 to 0, yesterday on the Pirates' home field.

Tony Steponovich's Pirates, held in check during the first quarter by the Vikings, gained momentum in the second period to tally twice. The scores came following long gains around end and off tackles. In the third quarter Oceanside intercepted a pass on its own 25-yard line and Stevenson and Morgan carried the ball to the four-yard strip, from where Morgan went over.

Lawrence Carr's Vikings completed a number of passes and reverses for long gains late in the game, but could not score. For the winners Stevenson, Broden, Carpenter and Itzaina stood out, while Higgins, Sloan, Chittick, Weber and Cromwell appeared best for La Jolla.

A NOTABLE RAILROAD
Scenic wonders of the west, heretofore undreamed of for the tourist, have been opened up by the new San Francisco and Pacific Railway. Never in the history of the American railway building has there been more happy advertising because its route is more beautiful than that of any other transcontinental line. The new line has gone before. Los Angeles is the equal beneficiary of the new line.
